

Dr Gergely Daniel Dzsini, LL.M., CIPP/E Attorney, Budapest

Gergely is an attorney and of counsel of Eversheds Sutherland Budapest, Sándor Szegedi Szent-Ivány Komáromi Eversheds Sutherland. He serves as a board member of the Cybersecurity Advisors Network CyAN in Paris, where he also leads the Data Protection Expert Group.

He is an adjunct professor for cybersecurity and defense management at the global top40 institution Emlyon Business School in Lyon.

He was a key expert at the European Commission's Fundamental Rights Colloquium and a member of the a High-Level Expert Group on Fake News at the European Commission (Brussels).

As a CYAN representative, he served as a member of the Advisory Board of EUROPOL's Cyber Crime Directorate EC3 (The Hague).

Among his keynote speeches, he spoke at the Northeastern Security Symposium of NJCU together with the FBI (New Jersey) and at the first Belizean Cyber Security Forum (Belize). Among his projects, he gave advisory to Expertise France, to the European Communities Trade Mark Association (Brussels), to the Council of Europe on cybercrime related policy development regarding 5 countries (Strasbourg).

His past in-house roles include working for VIDENTIFIER as a vice president in the field of law enforcement & security (Reykjavík); license compliance lead at Microsoft Hungary; chief legal counsel at T-Systems Hungary (based in Budapest).

He gained his law firm experiences at Göhmann (Hanover), at SBG&K (Budapest) and at Bérczes Law Firm (Budapest).

His public administration experience includes the European Patent Office (Munich).

He holds an LL.M. in criminalistics (thesis: "The communication and hacker activities of ISIS") and also in ICT law and the CIPP/E certification from IAPP.

He is a member of the Budapest Bar Association, CyAN, and IAPP.

Practice area: cybersecurity and data protection, Criminal law, EU and dispute resolution